

ASIAN ASSOCIATED WRESTLING COMMITTEE (AAWC)
NEWS UPDATE

JULY 2007

I. AAWC GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The General Assembly held in Bayview Park Hotel in Manila was well attended by 30 delegates from the AAWC officialdom, and representatives from 15 member countries.

AAWC President Chang Kew Kim reported on the stronger collaboration among member countries making the AAWC work better for the development of wrestling in the Asian continent. With his sound fiscal management, AAWC is able to pursue its programs year-long.

The new Asian Cup got the interest the Islamic Republic of Iran, and Mongolia.

II. AAWC SCIENTIFIC SEMINAR

The first AAWC Scientific Seminar successfully kicked off with three distinguished speakers from different fields.

Speaker Dr. Lee Dae Tack (Korea) talked on “Application of Sports Science in Wrestling”, Dr. Jose Raul Canlas (Philippines) enthusiastically discussed “Sports Related Injury” with a beautiful video presentation; and Dr. Kashumi Kukidome (Japan) tackled “Strategies for Enhancing Physical Performance in Wrestlers”.

46 participants registered including representatives from AAWC member countries, doctors, and local sports management and physical education professors from different universities of Manila.

III. FILA AWARD TO FIRST GENTLEMAN

Philippine First Gentleman Atty. Jose Miguel T. Arroyo, husband of the Philippine President HE Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo, was conferred the FILA Award Medallion by AAWC President Chang Kew Kim, and the AAWC officials at the Presidential Guest House in Malacanang Palace, official residence of the Philippine President. The simple ceremony was followed by a Filipino breakfast treat.
